Gronlund New Vice-Prexy

Robert Gronlund, senior from Duluth, Minn., was elected vice-president of the Wartburg student body at the final election yesterday. He received 136 of the 288 votes cast.

Edgar Zelle received 95 votes, Edith Baehr 55 and Barbara Becker two write-in votes. All candidates for the vice-presidency were seniors.

Election of Gronlund, already a Student Senate member, necessitates the holding of another election to choose a senator from the senior class. This will be done in the near future, according to David Rath, student body president.

Both Gerald Herbener and Barbara Baehr, seniors, who were nominated along with Gronlund in the primary election, withdrew their names from the race when they were introduced to the student body at convocation Thursday morning.

Gronlund Tops Primary

Results of the primary election gave Gronlund 133 votes, Zelle 55, Baehr 45, Herbener 35, and Barbara Becker 34. A total of 281 students voted in the primary.

Other top vote-getters in the primaries were: Elaine Schlesinger with 59 votes; Josephine Pries with 49; Albert Wagner 48; Maynard Sauter 47 and Delbert Meyer 40.

Class Elects

In order to speed organization of the Student Senate, the three upper classes elected officers Monday evening. According to an amendment adopted last year, class presidents automatically become members of the Senate.

Seniors elected James Zuehl, president and Gerald Herbener, vice-president; Audrey Matthiass was named secretary and Richard Kamper, treasurer. College Chaplain Ed Wenzel was elected adviser.

Bykner is Prexy.

Bykner is the new president of the sophomore class as a result of defeating Harold Willsbore, Ray Harms, Katherine Smith, Wayne Smith and Don Baehr in the Monday evening election.

Vice-president is John DeYoung, while Katherine Smith is secretary, Raymond Neumann, treasurer, history, was named class adviser.

Permanent organization of the Student Senate will come soon, since the vice-presidency has been filled.

Kamper President Of Dorm Council

Richard Kamper, senior, was elected president of the new house council of Grossmann hall, men's dormitory, Monday evening at an organizational meeting of the new group.

New council members, all of whom were elected at the dormitory meeting earlier Monday evening, are Kamper and Harold Krueger, seniors; Paul Lohnes and Richard Baehr, juniors; Gordon Braun and Al Roy Aden, sophomores, and Melvin Sommers, freshman.

Paul Lohnes was elected secretary of the council.

Mrs. Maude Schell, housemother, and Ernest F. Opperman, acting dean of students, were introduced to Grossmann residents at dormitory meeting by Omar Bordinger, late year dorm council president, who presided.

Frosh Orientation Program Opens With Opperman, Becker Speaking

Freshman orientation program was officially begun this week with Ernest Opperman, dean of students, explaining the purpose and aims of the orientation program on Tuesday evening, and President C. H. Becker on Thursday evening speaking on the value of an education with emphasis on service.

Orientation program will continue for six weeks with lectures by faculty members on the various fields of college life. Dr. Franklin can expect address by Dr. John Hiltner, head of the department of Christianity, on church life and religion; Mrs. Hiltner, after Dr. W. G. Fischel, psychology instructor, and Miss Stella Austerud, assistant professor of education, will lecture on correct study habits.

For social grace and improvement, newcomers to Wartburg will hear Miss Hazel Snyder, head of the home economics department, Dr. Alice Hiltner, dietitian, and Mrs. Hiltner, respectively. Dr. Elmer Hertel, professor of biology, will lecture on personal physical care and keeping in touch with current affairs and the fine arts of life sciences. Dr. Carl Oberdorfer, history instructor, and Miss Helen Wright, instructor of art, respectively. Dr. Elmer Hertel, professor of biology, will lecture on personal physical care and

More Books

Roland Lauer joined most Wartburg students in哀悼ing the huge stacks of books moving out of the college bookstore last week. Here he helps Donald Melhado add a few books to the pile. Both fellows are sophomores.

This year's faculty advancements were announced Wednesday evening by Dr. C. H. Becker, Wartburg president, at a faculty mixer in the cafeteria. The advancements were effective beginning with the current collegiate year.

Advanced from associate to full professorship was A. Aardal, head of the physics department. The Rev. August Baetke, head of the sociology department, and the Rev. Walter Tilmanns, head of the modern language department, were both advanced from assistant to associate professors.

Mrs. Erma Bowman, voice teacher, was named as assistant professor, as was Miss Stella Austerud of the geography and education departments.

Here 18 Years

Prof. Aardal, who has been at Wartburg since 1930, received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Wisconsin and his master of science degree from the Iowa State College. He taught physics at Concordia college, Moorhead, Minn., and at Iowa Wesleyan College before coming to Wartburg.

Heading the sociology department since 1946, Prof. Baetke holds a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Wisconsin and a master of arts from the University of Chicago. He is a graduate of Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, and has taught at the Universities of Leipzig, Erlangen and Wisconsin.

Prof. Baetke is the former superintendent of the Lutheran Deaconess seminary in Milwaukee, Wis.

Tilmanns in German

The Rev. Mr. Tilmanns, associate professor of German, received his bachelor of divinity degree from Concordia Seminary and his master of arts degree from Iowa State University. He has also attended the University of Heidelberg, Tuebingen and Wisconsin.

He has taught as a pastor in Texas from 1933 to 1944. Prof. Tilmanns taught at the Universities of Ohio and Wisconsin, as well as at Hebron junior college in Iowa.

Prof. Tilmanns has been a pastor of arts degree from Iowa State Teachers college and her master of arts from Columbia University. She has taught under Walter Stultz, Clippinger, Charles Dickinson and Robert Elwyn.

Mrs. Bowman formerly taught at Western Union, Iowa State Teachers college. She has been at Wartburg since 1943.

Prof. Austerud holds both her bachelor and master of philosophy degrees from the University of Wisconsin. She was professor of education at Buena Vista college, supervisor of the public schools at Forest Hill, and ASU instructor in geography at Illinois college before coming to Wartburg in 1944.

Women Organize New Judicial Board

Organization of a women's judicial board to judge cases of students accused of infringements of rules was announced this week by Dr. Anna S. Schick, new dean of women.

Eleven on the board are: Edith Baehr, Annex I; Miriam Dredlow, Annex II; juniors are Adeline Rudolph, Annex I, and Anna Marie Walker, Annex II; sophomores are: Gertie Gandy and Helen Fink, Wartburg hall.

Bonnie Mae Schulz, Annex IV, and Barbara Wuest, Wartburg hall, are the two freshmen members of the judicial board.

"Welcome to Wartburg" came to incoming students when they saw this new sign erected during the past summer at the entrance on the south campus slope. Last year's senior class provided funds for the sign.

Knights, Ladies Welcome New Students

Last week Knights and Ladies of Wartburg opened the castle doors for the 81st time to welcome incoming freshmen and transfer students. Following that welcome has come a gradual introduction to the traditions and ideals of the college.

New students have learned that Wartburg has a friendly campus where "hi" means more than just "hello," where faculty members and students are all members of the college family. They have found that what they may take for curiosity is really an indication of the fraternal spirit of Wartburg.

Newcomers to the campus find that their new home is a haven of precious traditions—customs ranging from the relatively unimportant freshman initiation to the significant search for the knightly attributes of courage and service. Optimism, too, has its place in the make-up of a Knight of the Castle Wartburg. He is an idealist and a builder, one who plans for the future while living in the present.

But by far the greatest single ideal found by a new Knight on the college campus is that of Christianity. Out of that Christian faith has come the spirit of Wartburg—a spirit of mental and spiritual growth and of unselfish service to God and man. This is the spirit which says with St. Paul, "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me."

Newcomers to Wartburg will learn, as have Knights in years past, that their new home contains a diversity of individuals and aims but is united in that faith which can and has moved mountains.

Chapel Attendance Important

One of the most important, though neglected, parts of life at Wartburg or at any other Christian college, is chapel worship every day. The benefits of attending chapel are numerous; the arguments against it are empty.

Naturally, the most important reason for holding chapel devotions is that the service is spiritual food for each hungry Christian on the campus. It brings the individual student closer to his God through prayer, meditation and praise. Here one is given the opportunity to renew his spiritual pledge to himself, his God and his fellowmen.

Social benefits are generously reaped from chapel attendance. Fellowship with Christians on any plane is inspiring, and it is made even more so when gained through a worship service. It is only through this meeting that a young Christian can appreciate his precious faith.

Wartburg is a Christian college inhabited by professing Christians. Chapel services should act as a pivot to a student's day on the college campus.

Trumpet Staff Renews Pledge

At the outset of another collegiate year and at the beginning of the 13th year of newspaper publication, it is only fitting that the staff of the WARTBURG TRUMPET should renew the pledge which it gave its readers last year:

To serve the best interests of a Greater Wartburg college, and, by so doing, to serve the Wartburg family of students, faculty members, alumni and friends;

To further the high ideals of the journalistic profession by fair, full and accurate reporting;

To use the editorial columns to criticize where criticism is appropriate, to praise where commendation is due and to suggest where recommendations are fitting;

To entertain on a level appropriate to members of a Christian college family;

To aim all advertising toward the needs and wants of its readers;

To accept criticism and ever strive for excellence in every detail of journalistic activity, and

To use the principles set forth by the Risen Lord and Saviour as the most important guides in the production of the TRUMPET.

Three New Deans

Keep Flame Burning

By Lois Jean Chasley

Keeping the bright flame of Wartburg burning for the incoming year are three new sparks—three new deans. Making sure of the ignition between faculty and students is the dean of the faculty, Dr. Carl F. Reuss. Watching over the student body are the deans of students, Ernest Opperman, and dean of women, Mrs. Barbara A. Schick.

In his office, three steps higher than second floor of the administration building, is Dean Carl Reuss, welcoming all the students.

The dean of students is the both of offices at Wartburg and also as executive secretary of the American Lutheran Church Board of Christian Social Action.

Wartburg looked like a poor country cousin" Dr. Reuss responded when asked about his first impression of Wartburg in 1948. This, he explained, was because he had just come from the "city."

Since he has been here, however, and looked over the campus grounds, the dean says, "Wartburg has a tremendously bright future; had I not thought so, I would not have accepted the position as dean of the faculty."

Dr. Reuss also expressed the feeling of friendliness and belonging extended to newcomers at Wartburg, not only from students, but from the citizens of Waverly.

Before coming to Wartburg, Dr. Reuss was a research and professor of zoology at Capital University. Being interested in all forms of social studies, he was employed by the government, first as a civilian, then as a social science analyst before his career at Capital. Immediately after he finished his work there, he obtained a teaching position at his University of Washington. He taught for seven years at the state college in Pullman, Washington.

True To Hospitality, closing the door from Rich mond, Dr. Reuss came to Wartburg officially when he said, "I am definitely looking forward to contacts with the students of Wartburg."

Going down the steps of the administration building and turning right, one finds the office of Dean Ernest Opperman. Being dean of men is a full-time job in itself, but his interests are diversified. With sports being at the THANKS SHOULD GO to faculty members responsible for the new and improved dormitory given to students and faculty this week. This is something new on the Wartburg campus, and although it is only a foretaste of what we hope to have some day, it is a good one.

C. W. PRIPS, college business manager and employment director, informed the students of the first aid clinic to be available to those needing jobs to continue in college. He adds that those who have not yet received employment should apply at the office. Wartburg old-timers are asked to inquire in the business office.

OUR SYMPATHY GOES TO Ray Elmer, whose father died recently. We have items like this make reporting difficult; we hope they will not come many times this year.

UNIQUE AMONG STUDENT OFFICERS on the campus is Dick Karpur, electrician and son of Mr. and Mrs. Grossmann, who live across the street. Dick is living off campus until the north wing of Grossmann is completed.

A NYKODIM AWAITED is the A dedicatory concert on the new organ used for convocations. Warburgers join in financing the organ and the chapel for its beautiful gift. It will add much to the inspirational benefits of our worship services.

Sextuplets Arrive On Wartburg Campus

By Ted Steinbeck

Sixuplets were born on the newest vertebrate on the Wartburg campus this year. Waggles is their proud canine mother.

All rights to the puppies are claimed by the 10-year-old Dick Becker. Waggles' mistress who instructs that each of the two brown-spotted puppies be called Blacky and each of the other four black-spotted ones be called Whitey.

According to Cawley, "The puppies are teeny bitty, and can't be picked up too much."

The young mother also mentioned that the feeling was no problem "cause they get fed by their mother."

Cawley made it plain, though clear, that was this, "I'm going to keep them all 'cept one."

But perhaps her parents, President and Mrs. C. H. Becker, have other plans.

Knights Open Season With Loss

By Adam Meldinger

Wartburg college opened its 1948 football season last night at La Crosse. The La Crosse Teachers college by putting out on the shore end of a 20-40 count.

The score, however, does not tell the story in this case. This was the 10th victory for the Knights, for although beaten, the outlasted the Indians in every respect after the first eight minutes of play.

Knights Nervous.

The Nebrascans were jittery at the start of the game, and this fact immediately got them into trouble. The Indians kicked off with the wind. Lynn Bruns took the ball in the end zone and could not get started. "Mac" McElroy, all, however, did a fine job of punting for the Knights, booted to the 20-yard line.

As Loomis picked up four yards, and then George Sladey shot a 40-yard field to the one-yard line. Nichols went over for the score. The Indians failed to convert.

Wartburg tried again, but after picking up three yards, was forced to kick again. On the very next play, the Indians Jim Murschirok broke through the right side of the line, received a hand and raced 55 yards down the sidelines for the second score. DeMerle booted the extra point and La Crosse was 13-0.

Wartburg Takes It.

Once again Wartburg took over, but not for long. On their third play, Nichols intercepted a Knight pass and also got off before Paul Bruns brought him down from behind. However, three plays later, Loomis cracked three from the 10-yard line and went to end for the winning touch.

From this point on, it was all Wartburg. With Big Ervin Handis running through on power plays and Lynn Bruns taking the ball to Koob and Platte, the Knights outshone the Indians, as the statistics will show.

The Wartburg line buckled down and stopped the La Crosse eleven in their tracks.

Old Dame Fortune was not on the side of the Knights, however, and the Indians and Orange and Black got an break. Passes were intercepted several times when they were needed.

Knights did well, however, as far as the La Crosse four-yard line but again could not count.

Brown, Hause Start.

Both the Hawks and the Tama Express were the offensive teams Express, were the offensive teams for the Knights. Wartburg stands out on defense as everyone would expect. Played a tight game. Kromrey, Benning, Ray, Lynes, Becker and Walthire were some of the more stellar linemen.

Bill Frederick, however, as far as the La Crosse four-yard line but again could not count.

Over 50 Candidates Turn Out For Nelson's 1948 Grid Edition

By Marvin Engel

Over 50 hopeful candidates turned out for Coach Melvin Nelson's 1948 edition of the Wartburg football team. Besides the returning lettermen, there are a number of young men new to the squad.

The Knights opened their season against the La Crosse Teachers and Nelson named 24 men to make up the team. Of this group, three were making their debut.

Those making their trip were Bill Frederick, Bill Hansen and Harold Kromrey, seniors; Mark Summers, Lynn Bruns, Paul Summers, Melvin Sommers, Lynn Koob, Bill Lynes, Ray Mier, Dick Nuter, Walde Platte and Luvern Stanley, sophomores; Stan Wignes and Howard with three sophomores; Marvin Benning, Eric Hansen, Arthur Kahlhoff, Art Klein, Clifford Malden, Keith McDougall, Eldon Menden and Melvin Sommers, freshmen.

As many as six others were mentioned by Coach Nelson but not making the trip this time. Bill Hansen, Walde Platte, Richard Camp, Eric Dierich, Hansen, Son, Dick Tillou and Otto Zwanzig.

Blow is a letterman but will be making his return this fall. The Knights are looking forward to his backfield.

Bill Frederick, playing his first football although he is a senior, has been showing up well in practice. Paul Platte, a freshman with no high school experience,

Sparkling new diamond and mink wedding rings which have appeared on the campus this fall are an indication that Cupid has been at work.

During the summer Patricia Sieglaff, former student from Waterloo, and Robert Becker, junior from Pomeroy, became engaged.

This week two more engagements were announced:

Florence Mathiesen, senior from Chatsworth, and Donald Dabert, senior from New Haven, Iowa, senior from Maynard, Alice Baatz, senior from Cedar Falls, and Raymond Martin, Seminary student from Milwaukee, Wis.

Several students have returned to the campus this fall. Among them are Ruth Aaneth of Ida, Wis., and Alvin Thenack, junior of Chatsworth, Wis., who married in Chatsworth, Del. Mauze, and Marvin Bergin, junior from Talcottsville, Wis.

More recently here are Francis Blass, St. Ansor, and Donald Morash, junior of Oskaloosa, Wis., and Fred and Freda Kuebler, junior part-time student of Wykoff, Minn.; Geraldine Gorde, New Haven, and Geraldine Tamm, senior of Maynard, Wis., Mary Ellen Harris, Charles City, and Ray Ihnen, senior of Palmer, Evelyn Heger, Waverly, and Charles Morrison, junior of Oskaloosa, Wis., and Marjorie Toekheim, Story City, and John Michaelson, sophomore of Story City.

Not only did members of the student body exchange vows this year, but also some of the present faculty. Barbara Anderson, of State College, Pa., senior of women, and the Rev. Edward Schlick, senior of men, were married on July 30. Cynthia Marshall of Flat River, Mo., and Raymond D. Wilderman, new instructor in speech here, were married Aug. 22.

Tradition Broken With Scholarships

Tradition was broken this year when three freshman women were awarded music scholarships. In past years only one has been given.

Awarding of the scholarships was announced this week by Dr. Edwin L. Lepke, head of the music department. Recipients are Marian Petersen of Greenfield, Ruth May of Stratford, and Dorothy Bobbel of Davenport, Ia., piano.

The three women winning the scholarships were among eight auditioned by the college music faculty.

"The talent we heard in auditions was exceptional," said Dr. Lepke in explaining the reasons for awarding three scholarships.

Diamond Jubilee music scholarships are given each year to ten female students, piano, voice or organ. The college catalog lists "general scholarships, musical achievement and promise of accomplishment, a solo performer" as the criteria for awarding these scholarships.

Time Again Arrives For Evergreen Crops

Time has again arrived for the arduous task of initiating the much-needed crop of freshmen.

As in previous years, initiation will be in charge of the sophomore class veterans of the most recent initiation, and in whose minds correct methods and means are set forth.

According to the sophomore initiation committee, freshmen will strictly observe all rules which have been posted in most convenient places about the campus. As in previous years, freshmen will wear traditional green caps and balaclavas at the request of upperclassmen.

Interacting among freshmen will not be tolerated, however, to carry for the senior class. "It is for this reason that freshmen will be required to have at least two up-grade dates for which the 'greens' will naturally assume all expense."

Customs can be strictly taboo, which all nonconformists will soon discover. Strict obedience to upperclassmen will be observed, enforced at all times.

"Initiation will be carried out in a far less severe manner than last year," stated William Boyden, president of the sophomore class.

It is our desire that upperclassmen realize that initiation rules as set up by the sophomore class are to govern not only the actions of freshmen but like themselves.

"Painful tormenting and unmerciful punishment of freshmen will not be tolerated by the freshman initiation committee," added the sophomore prey.

Speaker At Verein

Dr. Carl Oberdorfer, American Lutheran missionary to India, will speak on German missions at the organizational meeting of Der Hans Saks Verein, Wartburg German club, Tuesday at 8 p. m. in chapel hall, as announced by Rev. Bill Hender, junior and president of the organization.

Also on the program will be German devotions, songs and games, as well as election of a vice-president and a secretary-treasurer.

Campus Building To Be Resumed On Larger Scale

Building on the campus should be resumed on a major scale next week, according to President C. H. Becker.

Bricklayers are scheduled to begin work on the third floor of Grusmann hall next week, while the north wing plasterers, Dr. Becker expressed the hope that the north wing of the dormitory would be ready in six weeks.

After completion of the third floor of Grusmann hall, living in the unfinished sections on the first and second floors will move into the new rooms so the contractor can work on the rest of the first two floors.

March 1, 1949, has been set as the completed date for the Knight's gymnasium. Construction has been delayed by a lack of funds.

Dr. Becker also announced that plans are being compiled by the architects for the south wing of Luther hall.
